

Hand binding

EggnWorks notebooks are carefully bound one by one by hand using japanese traditional binding technic. Japanese skilled craftsman makes it.

Pale cream kinmari

It is suitable for books because of its excellent printability and high opacity. The basic cream color is easy on the eyes and gives a soft impression.

Suitable for writing with fountain pens, ballpoint pens, pencils, etc.

Specially processed cover

Different special printings are applied for each cover to highlight the appeal of the work.

Flat opening

No matter where you open it, it will open 180 degrees horizontally. There are no obstructive rings. so you can write firmly on the inside. It is the ideal form of a notebook that makes writing stress-free.
